STRATEGIC LITIGATION IS AN IMPORTANT TOOL for organizations and individuals, and it can lead to positive outcomes for you and your business. But first, you need the right litigators in your corner.

With more than 300 litigators across 14 offices, our Firm doesn't just provide a deep bench and broad experience. We also bring insight drawn from decades at trial with our team of former prosecutors, former judges, and seasoned trial attorneys. We bring knowledge built on deep industry experience, across dozens of industries, including litigation on behalf of and against government agencies and regulators.

Our litigation team is practical and aggressive, committed to minimizing the business disruption that litigation can cause, while getting your case to trial or settlement with an efficient approach that maximizes your outcome. At each step, we will help you weigh the risks and rewards and formulate the right approach.
